

*Surrexit Christus, Alleluia! Surrexit Dominus vere, Alleluia!
Christ has risen, Alleluia! The Lord has truly risen, Alleluia!*

*Veni, Sancte Spirtus!
Come, Holy Spirit.*

Prayer to the Holy Spirit .

Come, Holy Spirit, fill the hearts of the faithful.
And enkindle in them the fire of Your love.
Send forth Your spirit and they shall be created.
AND YOU SHALL RENEW THE FACE OF THE EARTH.
Let us pray. O God, who has taught the hearts of the faithful by the light of the Holy Spirit, grant, we beseech You, by the gift of that same Spirit, that we may always be truly wise and ever rejoice in His consolation, through Christ, our Lord. Amen.

God bless you all. Fr. G.J. Woodall.

We are currently reorganising our parish and deanery structures, and to ensure we are supported in mission-focused initiatives the Diocese has launched a Mission Enabling Programme. We must also develop a financial plan, one that is well informed and meets our needs. Therefore after Easter we are commencing a consultative phase, with professional support, to gather opinions from parishioners about our funding strategies. If you are asked please consider giving your views, through a one-to-one conversation or an at-Mass survey. Please also pray for our mission and for this journey of discernment, that we can share the love and message of Christ more widely. Full message 'www.dioceseofnottingham.uk/news/consultation'. GIFT FROM JANET & PATRICK DOYLE to our church in Spilsby - '1535 The Breaking of the Storm - 1935'"This beautiful picture has been specially painted by Dom Pedro Subercaseaux, OSB, of Quarr Abbey to commemorate the fourth centenary of the first martyrdoms in the Reformation storm which wrecked old Catholic England. Seen through the archway is the White Tower, the central keep of the Tower of London, in which Blessed John Fisher and Blessed Thomas More were imprisoned at the time when the scene of our picture occurred. Blessed Thomas More, looking out of his cell window actually witnessed it and commented to his daughter, Margaret, on the cheerfulness with which the Reformation Proto-Martyrs faced their death. The date was 4th May, 1535. In the centre of the group are the three Carthusian priors, in their cream-coloured habits, Blessed John Houghton of the London Charterhouse, Blessed Lawrence of Beauvale, Nottinghamshire, and Blessed Augustine Webster of Axholme, Lincolnshire. To the right of the Carthusians are two priests in black. The first is Blessed John Haile of Isleworth and previously of Chelmsford, Proto-martyr of the diocesan clergy. Next to him, his habit marked with a red cross, is Blessed Richard Reynolds, Brigittine monk of Syon Abbey, Middlesex. They are about to be tied to the hurdles, one of which is in the foreground, in which they were dragged to Tyburn, where they were hanged, drawn and quartered. Their sole offence was that they refused to acknowledge Henry VIII as the only supreme head of the Church in England. The artist was well-known in Europe and America for his skill as a water-colour painter before he became a monk.

THE HALL: open for teas and coffees after 11.00 a.m. Mass. GIFT AID: This is a way for us to earn extra money on your offerings...it's free money from the government. For every £1 that you donate we can claim 25p back from the government this is crucial money because it goes towards the running cost of both churches. We were able to claim back £5,763 in 2021 which was critical in keeping both churches running. If you work or have a pension where you pay income tax and you haven't yet signed up to gift aid, then please think about it and sign up today. There are forms at the back of church, for you to fill in and return to Jacinta or me. If you want to discuss it first, then talk to Jacinta or email her on jacintalewis21@aol.com. FOOD BANKS: in Spilsby and in Sacred Heart (via The Storehouse, Skegness, for those in need (tinned and other NONPERISHABLE foods). Thank you for your help.

AUDITING OF PARISH ACCOUNTS: Our sincere thanks to Jacinta for keeping our accounts in excellent order. They have been audited and approved without any problem, and will be presented to the parish shortly.
